LOOKS LESS ROSEY IN AFRICA TODAY

Boers Withdrawn From Pretoria Not a Sign of Surrender.

JOHANNESBURG TAKEN

Nothing Definite to Indicate that the Burghers Have Given Up Pretoria.

LOOKS LIKE MORE FIGHTING

London, June 1—[Special Cablegram]—The country calmly awaits the formal surrender of the Boers. The occupation of Pretoria may be a matter of hours or several days but Englishmen say that it does not matter since it is certain the government has been removed and the town practically abandoned.

A Gremiston dispatch dated Wednesday says the Boers are gathering at Six Mile Spruit a few miles below Pretoria, and if this is true Roberts will see more fighting before entering the capital, though it is not believed the resistance will be serious.

It is thought that Baden-Powell, whose whereabouts is now unknown, will enjoy the honor of capturing Pretoria.

A Pretoria dispatch dated May 29th, says that thousands of refugees are arriving at Pretoria and that two unsuccessful attempts were made to blow up the railroad between Johannesburg and Pretoria.

Sixteen British Killed.

Cape Town, June 1—[Special Cablegram]—The rebel colonials at Douglas in Northern Cape Colony surprised a body of British on Wednesday, killing sixteen, including Col. Spence.

Kruger Has Left Pretoria.

London, June 1—Belated messages from Pretoria confirm the reports of the departure of President Kruger with his cabinet and staff officials Tuesday night and the selection at a meeting of citizens of a committee to administer the city provisionally.

However, the late advices do not paint the situation as rosy a hue as did those of yesterday, for Pretoria has not been occupied so far as the official dispatches show and the recently annexed "Orange River Colony" is far from pacified, as General Rundle is reported as losing forty five men killed, besides many wounded in a battle in the former Free State.

Sharp fighting occurred in the vicinity of Johannesburg, indicating that the burghers are not inclined to give up without a struggle. It is expected that serious opposition will be met before the Transvaal army is crushed, and even the capture of Poetoria will avail little if the well armed troops of Kruger are still to be located and defeated.

No News from Pretoria

Since these telegrams left on Wednesday nothing, apparently, has reached Lourenzo Marquez by telegraph from Pretoria. Possibly the wires have been cut. Possibly the Boer censorship at some intermediate point intercepts telegrams.

Although the war office has not received a word about it, London harbors the idea that the Boer capital is already in the hands of the British or about to be there. The possession of Johannesburg, at all events, as Lord Roberts has telegraphed, is a fact. State's Attorney Smuts did not depart with President Kruger, but remained in Pretoria.

The present seat of the Boer government, according to a dispatch from Lourenzo Marquez, dated yesterday, is Middleburg, but it will probably be shifted farther east.

The Boers lately confronting Lord Roberts appear to have gone eastward also, toward the Lydenburg region. The defenders of Laing's Nek, when their position becomes too perilous, will probably go straight northward toward Lydenburg. When this concentration takes place there will be possibly 20,000 men, who may hold out for a time, with scattered bands of guerrillas elsewhere.

Boer Envoys Not Discouraged.

Boston, Mass., June 1.—Messrs. Fischer, Wessels and Wolmarans, the Boer envoys, were received at the city hall here by Mayor Hart and subsequently called at the state house. The mayor alluded to the day's news from South Africa, and hoped that the adversity sustained by the Boers might be for the best. Mr. Fischer responded, affirming that all he and his compatriots wished was justice. The envoys did not seem greatly depressed by the news from Johannesburg and Pretoria.

CHOLERA KILLS BY HUNDREDS.

Unusually Severe Epidemic in India's Famine Districts.

London, June 1.—The Daily Express has the following from Bombay: "An unprecedentedly severe epidemic of cholera has broken out in the northern districts of Bombay presidency, especially in the famine camps. The deaths have increased 40 per cent within three days. In the Kaira district there have been 1,330 deaths in seven days. The government has made a special grant of £61,000 to cremate the dead immediately. In Palanpur state on the first day there was one death, on the second there were eighty-four and on the third there were upward of 400. The swiftness of the infection was due to the fact that the first death was near the only available water supply. The germs were thus carried all over the camp. In the city of Bombay there have been sixty-seven deaths in the last seven days."

POLICEMAN CRANE DIED THIS MORNING

First Detachment of Members of the St. Louis Posse Report for Duty Fully Armed.

St. Louis, June 1—[Special Telegram]—Policeman Dennis Crane died this morning as a result of the double load of buckshot fired into him at midnight by Arthur Koenig, a union sympathizer, who in turn was killed by Patrolman Maher. Koenig flourished a gun all the evening. He drank heavily and deliberately shot Crane leaning against a wall in the distance. He was chased into a saloon where he was killed.

The first detachment of one hundred and forty five prominent citizens, members of the posse comitatus, reported for duty armed with riot shot guns this morning.

St. Louis, Mo., June 1.—There was a shooting affray on South Broadway at a late hour, in which Albert Koenig, a union man, was killed, and Officer Crane probably fatally wounded. It seems that Koenig was walking back and forth in front of the power-house with a shotgun on his shoulder. Officer Crane approached him and asked him to take his shotgun home. Koenig replied that he would do nothing of the sort, and when the officer grappled with him in an effort to disarm him the man brought the weapon to his shoulder, and, aiming it at Crane, pulled the trigger. The officer sank to the ground unconscious. Officer Maher was near by, and, running up to Koenig, demanded his surrender. Koenig made a threatening movement and Maher shot him, killing him instantly. Crane is at the Alexian Brothers' hospital in a dying condition. In addition to the posse comitatus of 1,000, ordered by the police board, the sheriff was directed to summons 1,500 additional men. Among those sworn in are Charles Green, the real estate man, formerly president of the People's Railway company; Judge William F. Woerner, E. C. Rowse, Louis Mullgardt, the architect, General B. G. Farrar, the United States sub-treasurer, and Goodman King, the jeweler. The police board has decided to arm the posse with riot guns, of which weapon the board has 700 on hand.

HALE DENOUNCES ENGLISH NATION

Bitter Attack Upon Great Britain in the United States Senate This Afternoon.

Washington, June 1—[Special Telegram]—In the senate today Perkins presented some memorials from business organizations in California, requesting congress to make an appropriation to relieve distress in the famine districts of India. He said he would not make any recommendation himself, for the reason that several years ago a number of far western states sent to India 4,000 tons of food products, and England had never acknowledged the donation or courtesy.

Hale interrupted Perkins with a short speech, attacking England most bitterly for spending hundreds of millions of dollars to crush out the South African republics, and declared if they had any sympathy in their hearts, instead of destroying the liberties of the Dutch republics, the English would send the money to relieve the distress of India the greatest dependency it possesses.

The debate got too warm, and presiding officer Frye declared the whole thing out of order.

JUDGE WYMAN IS IMPROVING

He Will Resume His Judicial Duties in the Fall

La Crosse, Wis., June 1—Word comes from Viroqua that Judge Wyman is much better and will in all probability recover. Just now he is enjoying a much needed rest, which physicians advised him to take. Judge Wyman expects to resume duties on the bench in the Sixth circuit next fall and has no intention of retiring as had been stated. He was re-elected for a full term of six years.

CAMP MEETINGS HELD IN THE SUNNY SOUTH

CENTENNIAL OF RELIGIOUS SERVICE THIS SUMMER.

Origin of the Custom Known As "Jerks"—How Peter Cartwright and Lorenzo Dow Regard These Strange Religious Manifestations—Great Revivals 100 Years Ago.

Nashville, Tenn., June 1—It is just one hundred years since the first camp meeting originated. It was the result of the most phenomenal wave of religious enthusiasm which ever swept over America. It began in Kentucky and Tennessee and the phenomenon, which was known as "the jerks" seems to have been fully authenticated No building then erected could accommodate the crowds that concentrated from all parts of the adjacent country. This necessitated the camp meeting.

In 1799 a sacramental meeting was held in the old Red River Baptist church, near Port Royal. Elders Hodge, Rankin, McGready and John McGee were present. After a fervent address by Elder Hodge the emotions of the vast crowd became uncontrollable.

Two aged ladies, Mrs. Peacely and Mrs. Clark, commenced tremendously vociferating sentiments of praise. Despite the attempt of the preacher to continue singing, the shouting increased.

The minister descending from the pulpit, passed along the isles vehemently exhorting. The clamor and confusion increased tenfold; screams for mercy were mingled with shouts of joy; a universal agitation pervaded the multitude. Suddenly individuals began to fall prostrate to the floor as if dead where they lay for some time unconscious and unable to rise.

The elders were so surprised and astonished that they retired for a conference. They concluded that nothing could be done, arguing if it were the work of the devil it could not last, and if of God, any effort to control it would be vain.

They re-entered the house and found nearly the entire congregation on the floor. Two or three began to rise, shouting praise for the evidence of sins forgiven. The excitement was so intense that the preachers could not attend the demands upon them. Hundreds professed to have been converted that day.

This was the beginning of the religious movement which, on account of the strange bodily exercise and agitations attending upon it, was looked upon as the most wonderful event of the times.

Peter Cartwright looked upon the jerks as a judgment sent from God to bring sinners to repentance. Lorenzo Dow preached in Knoxville in 1805, when about 150 of his congregation were affected with the jerks. He says: "I have seen all denominations of religion exercised with the jerks. I have passed a meeting house where I observed the undergrowth had been cut for campmeeting and from fifty to a hundred saplings were left breast high on purpose for the people to hold on by.

"I observed where they held on they had kicked up the earth as a horse stamping flies." His opinion was that the jerking was "entirely involuntary and not to be accounted for on any known principle." Hundreds of thousands of people were effected in what was then the western part of America. This tidal wave of religion lasted seven years before it began to wane.

The denominational churches of the south have arranged that all their protracted meetings in 1900 shall be held as camp meetings wherever possible, in celebration of the centenary of this phenomenal revival.

AN ARMY OF 55,000 TAKING THE CENSUS

ENUMERATORS ALL OVER THE COUNTRY BEGIN WORK.

Count of Uncle Sam's Seventy-five to Eighty Millions of Citizens—Experts Say Results Will Prove This the Greatest of Civilized Nations.

Washington, June 1—Before leaving his office last night Commander-in-Chief Merriam of the army of the census had piled upon his desk 297 telegrams. They were from his brigade chiefs scattered throughout forty-five states and five territories These dispatches carried but one message, and it read: "We are ready to move."

This morning, therefore, the 297 brigades advanced upon the enemy's front. It is a bold attack—55,000 raw recruits against 75,000,000 of people. But so well organized is the army of the census that General Merriam confidently believes that thirty days hence the last of the foe will have been rounded up, catechized, described, listed and paroled for another ten years.

Looks Like a Big Army

This morning 52,600 census enumerators start upon their rounds Two hundred and ninety-seven supervisors have them in charge. In addition to the staff here at headquarters four chief inspectors are out on the road and more than 2,000 special agents are also prepared to jump into their designated fields of inquiry.

It looks like a big army, and is bigger than any army the Boers have had in the field in South Africa. But this is a big country. If any man has hitherto failed fully to appreciate its grandeur he should be duly impressed by the fact that it will take 55,000 men a month to simply enumerate our great American population.

This end of the century census, the twelfth which Uncle Sam has taken is expected to show that the United States is today the greatest, the most populous, the richest, the most prosperous and the most rapidly growing modern nation.

About Seventy-five Million.

The experts have already figured out that the total population will leap from 62,000,000 in 1890 to between 75,000,000 and 76,000,000 in 1900.

Marshall, the English statistician, last fall figured the population of the United States June 1, this year at 77,300,000. The treasury experts make it still higher. Census Director Merriman has estimated seventy-three or seventy-four millions but for obvious reasons he is conservative.

There are experts here who are willing to wager that the grand total when finally wound up will not be over 76,000,000 nor under 65,000,000. It will beat the civilized world. Germany has only two-thirds as many people, France and Great Britain only a little over half as many. Russia and China have more but their bordes are not reckoned in the category of fully civilized modern people.

INSANE MOTORMAN RUNS CAR AMUCK

Heat Drives New York Street Car Man Insane—Collides with a Load of Sugar.

New York, June 1—[Sepcial Telegram]—James Casey, motorman on the Third avenue line, went insane from heat, while running a car. He turned on the full current and refused to stop on Thirty-Second street. The car struck a truck load of sugar, throwing the passengers through the windows. Eleven were taken to the hospital seriously wounded.

CROWD MAY REACH 35,000

The fun will begin with a monster parade at 11 o'clock in the forenoon and conclude with drill contests late in the day. Fifty bands will be in attendance. The principal speaker will be Lieut. Gov. Northcott of Illinois, head of the order. Ex-Mayor C. E. Whelan of Madison, president of the Picnic association, has the arrangements in hand.

ORDER BRITISH FLAG DOWN

How a Wisconsin Warden Got Into Trouble Decoration Day.

Waupun, Wis., June 1—Warden McClaughry of the state penitentiary had a British flag wound around a post on the porch of his residence Wednesday. On the other post he had some Scotch tartan bunting. On the other parts of the house he had six American flags.

And out in the front yard he had people with their hands in their pistol pockets demanding that he take down the English colors. In fact, delegations of prominent citizens called upon the warden three separate and distinct times asking about the British flag. It finally was taken down because the mayor of the city asked that this be done.

TO UTAH TO WED MORMONS

Carload of Girls From Illinois and Neighboring States EnRoute.

Denver, Col., June 1—A carload of girls converted to mormonism passed through Denver today to join the Utah followers of Joseph Smith and Brigham Young. They were in charge of a deacon and the deacon's wife, and were among the fairest the east could produce cheeks and eyes betokening the healthy farm life that the majority have been leading. Some were 18 and others 22 years of age but there was none older than that. They came from Missouri, Iowa, Illinois and other valley states. All expect to marry rich mormons.

Miss Jennie Hodges, a Peoria beauty speaking for the other twenty brides-elect said: "If I find no one to suit me I won't get married. Young men are becoming mormons and going to Utah from our state all the time. There are not enough eligible men for all the girls in the east. It's awful to be an old maid."

FILIPINO OFFICER SHOT AT CAGAYAN

BELIEVED TO BE AGUINALDO CHIEF OF THE REBELS.

Fell From His Horse But Was Rescued By His Men—Saddle Bags of His Horse Contained Filipino Leaders Personal Papers—Fight at Cagayan Valley.

Washington, June 1—[Special Telegram]—Gen. MacArthur asks for more troops in the Philippines. His special request is that only cavalry be sent. Three regiments will be forwarded but have not yet been selected.

Manila, June 1—Major Peyton C. March of the Thirty-Third Volunteer infantry, who has been pursuing Aguinaldo, has successfully crossed the mountains of North Luzon, and is now at Aparri. He reports coming up with the supposed bodyguard of Aguinaldo north of the Cagayan valley. During the fight which followed it was seen that an insurgent officer was shot from off his horse. He was rescued by comrades, but his horse and saddle bags were captured.

The saddle bags contained Aguinaldo's personal papers. The next day an outpost of the Forty-Ninth Volunteer infantry (colored) reported that a raft containing a body with two soldiers guarding it had floated down the Cagayan river, but that the swift current prevented its capture. It is thought possible that the officer shot was Aguinaldo, and that it was his body which the soldiers were guarding.

An insurgent lieutenant and eleven armed rebels surrendered to the Twelfth infantry yesterday.

Sixteen men of the Forty-eight Volunteer infantry yesterday captured the governor of Bangued. He is an influential rebel agitator, and has been a fugitive for some time.

A number of rifles have been surrendered at Cuyapo, and more are expected.

Generals Grant and Funston have sent detachments in pursuit of the insurgents who rushed the town of San Miguel de Mayomo, near here, Tuesday, killed five Americans, wounded seven and captured Captain Roberts of the Thirty-Fifth infantry and two enlisted men.

Filipino Leader Captured.

Manila, June 1.—The fugitive governor of the Benguet province, a rich, influential and devoted friend of Aguinaldo, was captured at Allit. Gens. Grant and Funston have sent detachments in pursuit of the insurgents who rushed the town of San Miguel de Mayomo, near here, Tuesday, when five Americans were killed, seven wounded and Capt. Roberts of the 35th infantry and two enlisted men captured. A number of rifles have been surrendered at Cuyapo and more are expected.

British Franchise Laws.

There were two acts passed by the British parliament which affected the franchise—the people's act of 1884 and the redistribution of seats in 1885. The former introduced a service franchise extending to householders and lodgers in counties. The suffrage which in 1867 had been conferred on householders and burroughs placed the three kingdoms on a footing of equality as regards electoral qualifications. Every man possessed of a household qualification or lodger qualification if the qualification be situated in England or Scotland is entitled to be registered as a voter, and when registered to vote at an election for such county or burrough in Ireland he would be entitled to be registered as a voter at an election for such county or burrough.

Why Whittier Remained Single.

John Greenleaf Whittier was a bachelor. Whittier was a great admirer of the married state, we are told, and in his boyhood had a blue-eyed, red-cheeked New England girl for his sweetheart. Together they went to school as children, and when they grew to youth's estate, he told her the story most girls like to hear. She heard it gladly, too, but he was poor and a poet, and love must wait for recognition. She promised, but waiting is wearisome; before recognition came to the gentle young versemaker she forgot him as a lover and was married to some one else.

"The German government takes a serious view of the situation in China. The powers are resolved on armed intervention."

The Peking correspondent of the Times, telegraphing Wednesday, says:

"The damage to the railway is estimated at £30,000. The government supports rather than condems the 'Boxers,' Not one has been arrested yet. No foreigner has been injured seriously, though murders of native Christians are reported daily from the country.

CHINA'S INTEGRITY GUARANTEED

Agreement Between Powers As to Number of Troops to Be Landed.

Washington, D. C., June 1—China's integrity is not to be disturded in consequence of the present Boxer movement. Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get about to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a 4 cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. Babcock, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by Smith's Pharmacy, kodak agents, next to postoffice.

EXPLOSIONS KILL TEN.

Unexpected Blasts of Glycerin and Dynamite.

AN ENTIRE FAMILY WIPED OUT.

Six Meet Death in Wisconsin, Four in Ohio—Others Seriously Injured—Particulars of Two Accidents Among People Accustomed to Explosives.

Brillion, Wis., June 1.—Six persons were killed by an explosion of dynamite in the home of William Broehm at Forest Junction, about eight miles from Brillion. The dead are: William Broehm, Mrs. William Broehm, three children of Mr. and Mrs. Broehm, ages ranging from 2 to 7 years; H. Stevens, a brother of Mrs. Broehm. The cause of the explosion is not known. The supposition is that about twelve pounds of the deadly explosive was too near the stove and became over-heated and exploded. No one was left to tell how the accident occurred, as every occupant of the houes was killed. The explosion occurred in the back part of the house, where the family was supposedly eating breakfast. This part of the dwelling was scattered all over the ground many yards distant, and the main part of the house was badly wrecked. So great was the force of the explosion that part of a banister was blown through three walls. The remains of the unfortunate victims were literally blown to pieces and beyond all semblance of recognition. Broehm was a well driller and was well-to-do.

The Ohio Fatality.

Marietta, O., June 1.—In shooting a well on the Kelly farm, east of this city, there was a premature explosion of fifty quarts of glycerin. Among the killed are William M. Watson of Marietta, an extensive oil operator; Frank Speers, and Thomas Daniels, farmers; H. E. Zelton and John Lofland, two leading citizens. The fatally injured are James P. Speers, Herman Speers, Dawson Stallar, and William Carpenter. Others seriously injured are John Stallar, Walter Daniels, and Henry Stallar. As nearly everybody on the ground was either killed or injured it is next to impossible to get a trustworthy description of the terrible explosion. The drilling was done by Michael Hannon and had been completed ready for the final shooting. The well was being shot by the Humes Torpedo company, which had lowered fifty quarts of nitroglycerin into the drilling. One of the workers who was at a safe distance said: "The jack squib was blown out unexploded and lodged under the derrick. Meantime the nitroglycerin exploded hundreds of feet underground as usual without damage, and when its explosion was heard the crowd rushed in under the derrick to see the gush of oil, and while the crowd was there the jack squib exploded among them. This jack squib had a slow protected fuse and went off on time, but on the outside of the well instead of in it. The employes of the driller and the Marietta Glycerin company remained at a safe distance from force of habit for some time, although they had no expectation of another explosion. None of them was hurt. They begged the others in vain not to rush up to the derrick. All those who were killed or injured were interested in the well and wanted to see how it would gush, or they were visiting farmers." There were about fifteen in the derrick where the fuse to the squib ignited the nitroglycerin, and the terrible result followed. Bodies were thrown in every direction.

Spent Night at a Tower's Top.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 1.—Exposed all night to the rain and winds at the top of the observation tower at Niagara Falls, 250 feet above the earth, Miss Florence I. Leonard, of Arlington, Ga., now lies at the house of a friend suffering from nervous prostration and threatened with pneumonia. She was left there when the car stopped running at 6 o'clock p. m. Not till 9 o'clock in the morning did relief come. When Manager Brooks brought up the first car he found her. She was unable to stand alone, but was reading her Bible, which she had carried when she went out in the afternoon. Miss Leonard was taken in a carriage to the house of her friends.

Chased by two Bloodhounds.

Richmond, Va., June 1.—With two bloodhounds close at their heels, Albert White and John Ward, of Nansemond county, ran a ten-mile race that they will never forget. Started as a sport, the chase came near ending in a double tragedy, and only the agility of the two men saved them from being mangled or killed. They managed to climb into some saplings, which threatened to bend beneath their weight and permit the hungry dogs to seize them. They were rescued just in time by the owner of the animals.

Archbishop of Dubuque.

Dubuque, Ia., June 1.—A letter received yesterday by a local priest from a Rome correspondent says that Archbishop Keane, late rector of the Catholic university at Washington, has been appointed to succeed the late John Hennessey as archbishop of Dubuque. The bull creating Keane archbishop of Dubuque has been sent to him for acceptance or rejection. The universal sentiment of Dubuque Catholics or Protestants is for Archbishop Keane.

Eulalie and Husband Part.

Paris, June 1.—Yesterday in Paris a deed of separation was signed between the Infanta Eulalie, daughter of ex-Queen Isabella of Spain, and Don Antoine, her husband. Don Antoine, who belongs to the Orleans family, will in future live in Paris, while Eulalie will live in Madrid. The children of the marriage will remain at school in England until old enough to follow military studies, when they will join the Spanish army. The causes of the separation are general incompatibility of character and the extravagant life of Don Antoine.

Primitive People's Weapons Found.

In the large amount of valuable material which Capt. Cromer has brought back with him from an island in Hudson's bay are many curious implements and weapons. The huge bone earrings with long pendants are primitive jewelry indeed. There are bows and arrows with flint points or heads, and harpoons of bone similarly pointed with stone. Combs carved out of ivory, walrus tusks, and many curious ivory ornaments and carvings are rare; pipes made of stone, bone needles, sinew threads, rawhide dog whips, arrow heads wrapped in intestine, and carried in this fashion to replace those that might be lost in the chase. They also carve in slate and stone, and some of the quaint little figures of polar bears, musk ox, reindeer and walrus, as well as of human beings, are interesting.

The Ring-Hals.

The ring-hal does not disdain an insect diet. Beetles, grasshoppers, locusts and termites are all readily devoured, as well as ticks and bots picked from the hides of cattle. I have sometimes amused myself by watching the bold yet cautious and gentle manner in which one of these ravens will approach a reclining ox, and, after a preliminary course of soothing caresses, accompanied by a soft "cawing" note, insert his head into the ear and dexterously extract the ticks. These birds always seem to have a good understanding with the older and more experienced oxen, who will, at a hint from one of them, lie down and place themselves in the most favorable position for the extraction of their parasites.—"The Birds of South Africa," by A. C. Stark.

Speed of a Cricket Ball.

A cricket ball delivered by a fast bowler often attains a speed of a mile a minute. When C. T. B. Turner, the Australian bowler, visited Woolwich arsenal, in England, he bowled through the electric screens in use for measuring the velocity of projectiles. It was found that, at a point representing half way between the wickets, the velocity of Turner's ball was 81 feet per second, or fifty miles an hour. At this rate the ball would traverse the pitch in 22-27ths of a second. Several bowlers, however, as, for instance, Richardson, the Surrey professional, and Jones, the Australian, bowl faster than Turner, and this would bring their pace to the mile per minute.

Celebration of the Holy Blood.

Prince Albert of Belgium has notified the ecclesiastical authorities of Bruges that he will be present at the celebration of the 750th anniversary of the bringing of Bruges of the holy blood. Every year the famous procession of the holy blood through the streets of Bruges is a sight that brings travelers and pilgrims from far and near. The richness and splendor of this year's pageant will rival the display of any religious ceremony that has taken place in western Europe for many a long year. Cardinals, bishops and ecclesiastical delegates from far and wide will assemble on this occasion. A magnificent historical cortege will form part of the general pageant, in which the nobility of Bruges will take part.

A Wonderful Filipino Hat.

A hat that will keep out the rain, serve as a helmet, and in case of emergency answers for a dish to hold water or food, is a convenience not to be despised. Such a hat is worn by the Philippine Indians. It is a black bowl-shaped affair, made of narrow strips of some fine species of rattan. It is of several thicknesses, and is impervious to rain. The hat of the women is even more useful than the men's It is made of palm leaf or rattan, and has a brim so wide that it serves as umbrella in case of need. Two women may sometimes be seen sheltered under one hat as they cross the street in the rain. But this broad brimmed hat is not only an umbrella and a head covering, it answers well as a basket, and in the market the women display their fruit or fish upon it, placing it on the ground before them.

CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON

Mrs. T. W. Lee, Montgomery, Ala., writes: "Several years ago I was inoculated with poison by a diseased nurse, who infected my baby, and for six long years I suffered untold misery. My body was covered with sores and ulcers. Several physicians treated me, but all to no purpose. The mercury and potash they gave me seemed to add fuel to the awful flame which was devouring me. Friends advised me to try S. S. S. I began taking it and improved from the start, and a complete and perfect cure was the result."

Contagious Blood Poison is the most degrading and destructive of all diseases, as it vitiates and corrupts the entire system. The first sore or ulcer is followed by little red pimples on the body, mouth and throat become sore, the glands enlarge and inflame, copper colored splotches appear, and hair and eyebrows fall out. These are some of the milder symptoms; they increase in severity, finally attacking the vital organs; the body is tortured with rheumatic pains and covered with offensive eating sores.

It is a peculiar poison, and so highly contagious that an innocent person handling the same articles used by one infected with this loathsome disease, may be inoculated with the virus. It can be transmitted from parent to child, appearing as the same disease or in a modified form—like Eczema or Scrofula.

Many an old sore or stubborn skin trouble appearing in middle life, is due and traceable to blood poison contracted in early life. You may have taken potash and mercury faithfully for two or three years and thought you were cured, but you were not, for these poisonous minerals never cure this disease; they drive it from the outside, but it is doing its work on the inside, and will show up again sooner or later. You may not recognize it as the same old taint, but it is. S. S. S. has cured thousands of cases of Contagious Blood Poison, and it will cure you. It is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and the only antidote for this poison. S. S. S. cleanses the blood thoroughly of every particle of the poison—there is never any return of the disease.

CURE YOURSELF AT HOME.

Send for our Home Treatment book, which gives a history of the disease in all stages, and is the result of many years of close study of blood poison and actual experience in treating it. You can cure yourself perfectly and permanently at home, and your secret is your own. Should you need any information or medical advice at any time, write to our physicians. They have made a life study of blood diseases, and will give your letter prompt and careful attention. Consult them as often as you please; we make no charge whatever for this service. All correspondence is conducted in the strictest confidence.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

Brigham Young.

1792—Kentucky admitted into the Union; second state under the constitution. Kentucky originally formed a part of Virginia. Even after her admission to the Union the Indians continued to disturb the settlers so that they complained of the inefficiency of the federal government. Still more had there been cause for complaint under the Virginia regime, and after the close of the war of independence the Kentuckians were often on the point of setting up a government of their own. A project looking to that end was encouraged by Spain.

1801—Brigham Young born in Whittingham, Vt.; died 1877; married 1825-66; left 17 wives, 16 sons and 28 daughters living, having lost 12 children and 7 wives.

1841—Sir David Wilkie, R. A., celebrated Scottish painter, died at sea off Gibraltar; born 1786.

1879—Prince Louis Napoleon, the only child and heir of Napoleon, III, killed by the Zulus in South Africa, where he served on the staff of the British commander.

1897—General Daniel Ruggles, oldest surviving graduate of West Point, died at Fredericksburg, Va.; born 1810.

1898—Thomas W. Keene, noted American actor, died in New York city; born 1840.

Governor Scofield delivered the Memorial Day address at Oconto, his former home, and in the course of his speech, made a plea for good citizenship. His remarks on the subject should be read by every advocate of good government, as the sentiment is sound to the core. The governor said:

"I do not think that an apology is necessary for venturing to speak to my comrades and neighbors of the duty they owe to their country in times of peace, but if it were, it might be found in the understanding of the need for a proper appreciation of that duty which several years in public life has given me. There is nothing so detrimental to the administration of public office in a government like ours as indifference on the part of the people. A keen interest, and a critical interest in the manner in which your public servants are performing their work is very helpful to those servants. I will go further and say that an administration officer cannot effectually perform the duties of his office without the intelligent co-operation of the citizenship of the state. Above all others, the men who so keenly appreciated the needs of their country that they were willing to risk their lives to protect it, should not be found slack in meeting the equally important responsibilities which the present age places upon them. I am satisfied that the same active spirit of patriotism which was abroad in 1861 is alive still, and that rightly directed it will apply itself to the solution of the great problems which confront the country now with the same earnestness as it took up arms in the sixties. The country does not need soldiers today half as much as it needs a patriotic and actively intelligent citizenship. We should study so to live and do the work that lies at our hands and the state and nation as well as our home community will be the better for our having been here. All of a man's duties are not comprised in the supplying of food and shelter for his family. This is a fundamental duty. But if each of us stopped with the performance of that we would soon have no nation to protect us and encourage development. It was with the belief strong in us that it was necessary for the nation to be preserved, if we ourselves were to be preserved that we went to war a generation or more ago. We are not called now to take up arms, but the country needs our intelligent and affectionate support as it did then. Are we all performing our duty to our community, our state and our nation? If we are not, we should be ashamed to call ourselves soldiers."

Henry Fink, of Milwaukee, in the course of a lecture to The Sentinel, speaks of the taxation problem and the tax commission as follows: "The last legislature created a commission for the purpose of establishing, if possible, a more just and equitable system of taxation than the present. For this step in the right direction the republicans of the last legislature, but more particularly Governor Scofield and Senator Whitehead, deserve credit."

Wallace Cochrane of this city, has formally announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for sheriff of Rock county. Mr. Cochrane has had many years experience as an officer, and as he is widely and favorably known, his friends predict that he will be in among the "leading candidates" when the county convention is called to order.

The Monroe Sentinel devotes a column of editorial space in the current issue to Senator Whitehead's candidacy for governor publishing the statements written, in support of the Janesville man, by Judge Orton, of Darlington, Hiram Smith of Racine and Cham Ingersoll of Beloit.

Admiral Dewey will not visit Three Oaks, Michigan, during the celebration incident to unveiling the Dewey cannon. Three Oaks people are naturally disappointed, but the celebration will not be abandoned.

The common council has broken all records, this spring, in the matter of ordering sidewalks built. This is as it should be. It doesn't cost much to build a sidewalk, but damage suits are very expensive

The house cleaning fever is sweeping over the land, and many an ordinarily sane and loving wife is, for the time being, a raving, tearing, maniac.

Superior Telegram:—To compromise on Mr. Whitehead or some man like him would certainly be a happy solution of all questions, from a party point of view.

The Boers made a good fight, but without avail England triumphs, as was expected, although she had to pay a heavy price in money and loss of life.

NEW YORK TO GO FOR BRYAN

The Herald Says the State Convention Will Indorse Him.

New York, June 1.—The Herald says: "William J. Bryan will be practically nominated for president when the Democratic convention of this state meets in this city next Tuesday There will be no opposition worth the name to overriding all precedents of the organization and placing the national delegates who are to be chosen under instructions to support the Nebraska candidate in Kansas City. All plans for opposing Bryan in the national convention were founded upon the hostility of the New York delegation, and with this removed the convention will be assuered to him in advance. Conferences held by the opponents of the plan to instruct the delegates showed that a majority of the state convention was against them and they gave up. With the Tammany vote and the delegates from the interior of the state, who have been instructed for Bryan, his friends claimed 275 of the 425 delegates in favor of instructions. Brooklyn, which has held out against instructions, and which, through its representatives in congress has declared for sound money, capitulated when a review of the situation showed the futility of further resistance. It was said last night that David B. Hill, who had formed elaborate plans to prevent the national delegates from being pledged, had had a talk with Hugh McLaughlin, in which Mr. McLaughlin informed him that Kings county could not help him. Mr. Hill drove away from the Hoffman house alone early in the afternoon and was absent until dinner time. Upon his return he was asked whether he had seen Mr. McLaughlin and he refused to say. In Brooklyn the statement was made unequivocally by machine leaders that the Democrats of that borough would join Tammany in voting for instructions for Bryan. They pointed out that a fight would certainly end in defeat and that Kings county could not afford to antagonize Tammany unless for good cause, because of the control of the Manhattan organization over city patronage."

New Jersey Is for Bryan.

Trenton, N. J., June 1.—The Democratic state convention to select delegates to the national convention at Kansas City met here at noon. When the convention was called to order by State Chairman William B. Gourley, nearly 800 delegates were present. Mr. Gourley introduced Colonel S. M. Zulick of Monmouth County as temporary chairman. The delegates were instructed for Bryan and the readoption of the Chicago platform. Great enthusiasm prevailed.

ARMY PLUMS TO GIVE OUT.

Plenty of Material to Fill Places of Merritt and Otis.

New York, June 1.—A special to the Herald from Washington says that President McKinley and Secretary Root are confronted with the problem of selecting from half a dozen equally deserving officers two to fill vacancies in the grades of major-general of volunteers and brigadier-general in the service. In anticipation of the vacancy which will be caused by the retirement of Maj.-Gen. Merritt the president has nominated Maj.-Gen. Otis, who holds volunteer rank, to be a major-general in the regular establishment. The resignation by Gen. Otis of his volunteer commission will make a vacancy in the grade of brigadier-general in the regular army. The president's choice for the volunteer office will probably fall upon Brig.-Gen. R. P. Hughes, who commands the department of the Visayas, unless he should be selected for brigadier-general in the regular service. These six officers are under consideration for the appointment of brigadier-general: Brig.-Gen. G. W. Davis, commanding troops stationed in Porto Rico; Maj.-Gen. J. C. Bates, commanding the department of southern Luzon; Maj.-Gen. L. Lloyd Wheaton, commanding the department of northern Luzon; Brig.-Gen. R. P. Hughes, commanding the department of the Visayas; Brig.-Gen. A. R. Chaffee, recently relieved as chief of staff division of Cuba, and Brig.-Gen. Theodore Schwan, who is now returning to the United States from the Philippines. Present indications point to the promotion of Gen. Davis, who has done exceptionally good work in Porto Rico.

A Favorite Passage.

He—There was one beautiful passage in Dr. Thirdly's service this morning. She—What was it? He—That passage from the pulpit to the vestry.

St. Elmo's Light.

St. Elmo's fire, or light, is the popular name of an appearance sometimes seen, especially in southern climes, during thunderstorms, of a brush or star of light at the tops of masts of vessels, at the ends of the yards, or on spires or other pointed objects. It is occasionally accompanied by a hissing noise, and is evidently of the same nature as light caused by electricity passing off from points connected with an electric machine. It is said, in Grecian mythology, that Castor and Pollux, who were esteemed mighty helpers of men, calmed tempests, appearing as the light flames on the masts of ships as described, and the ancient mariners took the appearance of these balls of light on their vessel as a sign that they had nothing to fear from the storm.

NINE ENUMERATORS START WORK HERE

CENSUS TAKERS HAVE MUCH WORK TO ACCOMPLISH.

Will Not Find the Task An Easy One —Expect to Finish Their Labors In Sixteen Days—Have Questions to Ask That Will Undoubtedly Cause Much Trouble.

Nine enumerators, residents of this city, started in this morning to take the census of the city of Janesville. Following are the enumerators and the wards that they have been assigned:

First Ward—Charles E. Church and George H. Davey.

Second Ward—George Buchholz and Fred L. Clemons.

Third Ward—A. E. Tanberg and Edwin L. Carpenter.

Fourth Ward—Charles Curtis and Claude Hendricks.

Fifth Ward—George Croft.

At seven o'clock this morning the nine local census takers started in on their labor and within the next sixteen days expect to complete their work.

Aside from the regular pay of 2½ cents for each name, he said, the enumerators could earn considerable money. For taking 2,000 names they will receive $50, and for the name of each person who has died during the last year 5 cents is paid. The same fee is credited to the enumerator for every person found who is either deaf, dumb, or blind. Then for each inclosure containing live stock not on a range or farm 5 cents is paid. In the latter class all stables are included. Every family cow and horse will net the name takers 5 cents. In addition to this, those who work in the suburbs will get 17½ cents for each farm.

The population schedule, which will include every man, woman and child in the country, will give the following description of each individual: Name and address, relationship of each person to the head of the family, color or race, sex, month and year of birth, age at last birthday, single, married, widowed or divorced, number of years married, mother of how many children, number of children living, place of birth, place of birth of father and mother; if an immigrant, year of coming to this country, number of years in the United States, naturalization, occupation of each person over ten years of age, months not employed, time of months attending school, ability to read, write and speak English; owner of home or rented, amount of mortgage, farm or house.

REV. BROWN TALKS OF DECORATION GAME

Presbyterian Church Divine Says the Day Should Not be Regarded as Sacred as the Sabbath.

Rev. W. F. Brown, former pastor of the Presbyterian church in this city and now a resident of Beloit, was in the city today on business. Rev. Brown has two sons who are members of the Beloit college base ball team that played in this city on the afternoon of Memorial day against the team from the University of Wisconsin.

In expressing his views on whether or not it was showing proper respect to members of the Grand Army to play ball here on Memorial day, Rev. Brown stated today that he saw no harm in playing the game on Memorial day in case it in no way interfered with the Grand Army program. Said Rev. Brown:

"I don't see how Memorial day can be regarded as being as sacred a day as the Sabbath. I see no harm in the playing of the game here on Memorial day if it did not interfere with the Grand Army program."

Rev. Brown attended the game occupying one of the most prominent seats in the grand stand.

SCRATCH ON FINGER CAUSED LOCK JAW

MICHAEL MULQUIN HAS ENTERED DEATH'S DOOR.

Slight Injury Ten Days Ago to His Right Finger Resulted In His Death—Well Known Resident of This City For Years—Kept Alive By Liquid Given Him Through Tube.

As the result of a slight scratch on the little finger of his right hand, received ten days ago, Michael Mulquin suffering with lockjaw, at his home, No. 406 Ravine street, died at 10 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Mulquin was unable to take any form of food aside from liquid on account of his jaws being firmly set. A rubber tube had to be placed in the mouth by the removal of one of his teeth. In this way the patient was kept from starving to death. The contructions of the muscles of the jaw were such as to render the unfortunate man helpless.

Ten days ago Mr. Mulquin accidently suffered a slight injury to the little finger of his right hand resulting in a small portion of the skin being removed. At the time nothing strange was thought of the injury and members of the family dressed the wound. Instead of improving the small injury commenced to cause him much pain. Then members of the family advised Mr. Mulquin to consult a physician.

Having neglected to properly care for the wound at the proper time it resulted in the developing of blood poisoning. This finally developed into Tetanus of which one of the symptoms is lock jaw. Mr. Mulquin is a man sixty-two years of age and for many years he has made his home in this city. At different times he has worked for the city being employed on the streets and at the stone quarry. The attending physicians are Dr. James Gibson and Dr. J. W. St. John. This is the first case of lock jaw that has been in Janesville in some years.

For twenty years Mr. Mulquin has made his home in this city and was one possessed of many friends. He leaves a widow and the following six children who are all residents of this city: Ella, Mary, John, Michael, Patrick and Thomas Mulquin. Notice of the funeral will be given later.

SCHOOL TEACHERS RECEIVE OFFERS

Many of the Janesville High School Force Are Now Seriously Considering Leaving the City.

With hardly a single exception it is claimed that every teacher in the Janesville high school building has received a better offer to fill positions next term in high schools of other cities Just what they intend to do about accepting these offers is a question that at present remains an open one.

Prof. D. D. Mayne when asked this morning if there was any truth in such a report stated that from what he could learn there was truth in the report but that as yet no teacher had notified him that he or she intended to leave Janesville. Prof. Mayne said that if the report was circulated that certain teachers in the High school intended to leave Janesville there would be at least thirty applicants for each vacancy.

Said a well known High school teacher to a Gazette representative this morning: "You can safely state in the Gazette this evening that before the opening of another term in the Janesville High school there will be many changes in the teaching force I know of eight of the teachers who are now considering outside positions recently offered them at better pay."

Following are the High sceool teachers: Misses Caroline Zeininger, Emma Paulson, Mary C. Holt, Gertrude Zeininger, Harriet Holt and Mrs. Mary James. Messrs W. F. Gaskins, W. A. Rowell, John Dixon, John Arbothnot, C. M. Best, Richard Egan and A. P. Laughlin. Supt. D. D. Mayne has also received a flattering offer to leave the city.

Size of the Sphinx.

The sphinx measures sixty-six feet from the excavated bottom of its base to the top of the figure. The length of each ear of the sphinx is four and one-half feet, its mouth seven and one-half feet wide, and its face fourteen feet broad. A person standing on the top of its ear can not reach to the top of its head. The sphinx is certainly large enough, but photographs showing it in varying sizes, even towering above the highest pyramid, is a mere trick of the camera.

While Mrs. Taylor was in the store, the boy, with stick in hand went to the edge of the walk where the family horse was tied and just to show his love for the steed he administered a few gentle taps on the animal's head with the stick. The horse broke from its fastenings and went up the street at break neck speed. On Milwaukee street the animal was captured with slight damage to the vehicle and harness.

MAC LEAN DEFEATS MICHAEL J. SULLIVAN

AWARDED JUDGMEAT FOR HORSE THAT WAS KILLED.

Accident Took Place Near This City in 1897—Interested Parties Are Well Known—Accident At the Time Caused Much Talk Over the County.

Colin C. MacLean was awarded judgment in Justice Earle's court this morning against Michael J. Sullivan in the sum of $167.50 with interest and costs. The outcome of this case has been watched with much interest by the local public as the interested parties are well known in Janesville.

The plaintiff is the popular west side liveryman. The defendant is a travelman who resided for a number of years on North High street and who now makes his home in Milwaukee. On July 23, 1897 Mr. Sullivan engaged a horse and buggy at the MacLean livery with the understanding that he was to drive to the home of his father in the town of Harmony where he expected to spend the night driving home the next morning. Mr. Sullivan left the city in the afternoon in company with his wife and child.

After paying a visit to the Sullivan homestead Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan and child started to return to town. When about two and a half miles from this city Mr. Sullivan's horse suddenly crashed into a rig coming in the opposite direction. This rig contained George Smith and others of the town of Harmony. The force of the collision threw all occupants of both rigs into the side of the road several feet away.

The horse Mr Sullican was driving broke lose from the buggy and with the thills by his side started at break neck speed towards this city. The night was so dark that it was difficult for one to see but a few feet away. The frantic animal in its wild run plunged into a ravine and broke his neck.

It was shown that the accident was due to carelessness on the part of Mr. Sullivan. McLean offered to settle for $75, but this Sullivan refused to pay. The suit then followed. Last December Mr. Sullivan went into bankruptcy. Charles E. Pierce appeared for the plaintiff and J. J. Cunningham for the defendant.

JOHANNESBURG IS READY

To Receive the Conquering British Army.

ROBERTS ASKED TO WAIT.

Pretoria Still in the Hands of Its Defenders—President Kruger Reported Taken—May Be Preparing for a Last Stand.

London, May 31, 6:45 p. m.—The Westminster Gazette says it is rumored to-night in a quarter likely to be well informed that President Kruger had been captured by the British six miles beyond Pretoria.

Germiston, Transvaal, May 30, 3:25 p. m.—Johannesburg is practically in British possession. The mines are uninjured. Nine engines, a coal train and a great quantity of rolling stock were captured. The remnants of the Boer rear guard remained behind and fought in the streets of Germiston, but they were easily cleared by the Grenadiers. The troops have not yet occupied Johannesburg. General French is now at Elandslaagte. The guards hold Elandsfontein and Germiston. The state entry into Johannesburg will take place tomorrow. The Boers have gone to Pretoria. The railroad from here to the Vaal river is uninjured.

London, June 1, 4:26 p. m.—A special dispatch from Germiston (a suburb of Johannesburg) says several hundred Boers have sought refuge in a mine, where the British Grenadiers have cornered them and barred all escape.

London, June 1.—The war office has received the following dispatch from Lord Roberts, under date of Germiston, May 30:

"In answer of a flag of truce I sent to Johannesburg this morning the commandant came to see me. He begged me to defer entering the town for twenty-four hours, as there were many armed burghers still inside. I agreed to this, as I am most anxious to avert the possibility of anything like disturbance inside the town and as bodies of the enemy are still holding the hills in the immediate neighborhood, from which they will have to be cleared off beforehand. Rundle reports that he attacked a large party of Boers near Senekal May 28. He said his casualties were not heavy. Brabant reports that May 28 two of his patrols, consisting of two officers and forty men, were cut off by the enemy and taken prisoners."

Another Telegram.

London, June 1.—Although there is no direct statement regarding the present situation in Pretoria, it may be said with practical certainty that the city remains in possession of the Boers, and that its occupation by the British is not necessarily immediately imminent. Nothing is known at the war office concerning the reported capture of President Kruger.

Socialists Make Great Gain.

Brussels, June 1.—Returns from last Sunday's elections show remarkable socialist progress in the last six years. In that period the socialists have gained no fewer than 140,000 votes in Belgium. The Belgian parliament has been summoned to meet on July 3. It is rumored that Count and Countess Lonyay will arrive in Paris June 8, where the countess, formerly crown princess of Austria, will meet her father, King Leopold, in order to effect a reconciliation. The count of Flanders, his majesty's brother, and Prince Albert, the heir presumptive, visited the Paris exposition yesterday afternoon.

Paris Fair Is Completed.

Paris, June 1.—The visitors to the exposition average 100,000 weekdays and 200,000 Sundays and fete days. The prophecy that the exposition would be completed by June 1 is amply realized. The progress made during May has been marvelous. Thousands of unpacked cases, which littered the thoughfares on all sides, have now disappeared. The pathways throughout the grounds have been elegantly payed. Floral decorations and universal animation give the exposition the true Parisian character.

Cigarmakers Win a Decision.

New York, June 1.—There is great rejoicing not only among the hundreds of cigar-makers who a few weeks ago caused a strike in the cigar factory of S. Levy & Co. in East 63d street, New York, but also among the thousands of cigarmakers who are supporting the strikers. This is because the injunction restraining the cigarmakers' international and local unions from extending aid to the firm's striking employes while the strike is in progress has been vacated by Judge Andrews. The judge says money was paid, not to ruin the firm, but to support the men, and this he holds to be lawful.

Two Saved by 8-Year-Old Boy.

Media, Pa., June 1.—Two children were dragged from a burning house on the truck farm of T. Steer Bicksloe by their 8-year-old brother, who, driven out by the flames, left his mother and a baby to perish. His mother, carrying the baby and a lamp, fell on a stairway, the lamp setting fire to the house. The boy, realizing that the house was doomed, dragged out a brother and a sister and then returned for his mother, whose arms clasped the baby, but her weight was too great for his little arms, and, as the flames were closing on him, he fled, heartbroken, to a place of safety.

JONES IMPALES F. W. PECK

In Regard to His Expenditures at Paris Exposition.

CALLS FOR A DETAILED REPORT.

Says Mr. Peck Up to January 1 Had Accounted for Less Than $400,000 of the $1,400,000 Appropriated for Exposition Purposes—Troops Landed at Tien-Tsin.

Washington, June 1.—The debate in the senate on the sundry civil appropriation bill, which was passed was enlivened by an attack on Ferdinand W. Peck, American commissioner to the Paris exposition, by Senator Jones (Ark.) Mr. Jones made a vigorous attack upon the administration of the Paris exposition commission by Mr. Peck. He pointed out that the law creating the commission made it mandatory upon the commissioner-general to make a detailed report of his expenditures to congress. He read a message from the president transmitting to congress what was termed "a detailed statement" of the exposition commission's expenditures. The statement contained only eleven items, the aggregate expenditures being $240,000. Up to Jan. 1, 1900, Commissioner-General Peck had accounted for less than $400,000 of the $1,400,000 appropriated for expositon purposes. He demanded to know where the balance of the appropriation had gone. The so-called detailed statement contained such items as $72,000 for clerk hire, $3,724 for personal traveling expenses of the commissioner-general, etc., which Mr. Jones said were ridiculous as "details."

Trust Fight Begins.

Washington, June 1.—Partisan wrath was aroused to the boiling point in the house, and a foretaste of the dawning political campaign was afforded by the introduction of a rule launching the anti-trust bills in congress, and the leader of the Democrats, Representative Richardson (Tenn.), made plain the position of that party on the proposed legislation. He announced that the constitutional amendment offered by the majority of the judiciary committee, which empowers congress to define and control trusts, would be uncompromisingly opposed by the Democrats. He added that they had agreed to sustain the anti-trust bill submitted by the Democratic minority of the judiciary committee, but in the event of its doom the Democrats would support the Litchfield amendment to the Sherman anti-trust act.

The Tennesseean characterized the constitutional amendment as destructive of the authority now exercised by states to suppress trusts. He attacked the Dingley tariff law as a measure which fostered and propagated trusts. "In the dying hour of this session," he continued, the Republicans came here with measures designed to recover political opportunities which they have lost. But the country will not be fooled. The Democratic party is eager to place upon the statute books some law which will suppress trusts. But we have not decided to support these specious party measures. The motive of the Republican party is plain. It is to eliminate the trust issue from this campaign. Shall we Democrats help them to do it? I hope not."

American Beauties.

There are none fairer or sweeter the world over. Unfettered and untrammeled the American woman queens it as does no other woman in the world. Yet her very energy and ambition are often times her undoing. She attempts too much. Her health is undermined. And when health goes beauty goes also. The use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery re-establishes the health. It cures diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition and assures perfect assimilation of food and the proper nourishment of the body. It increases the blood supply and eliminates the impurities that clog the system and cloud the complexion.

Mrs. Mary E. Lewis, of Tanner, Gilmer Co., W. Va., writes: "Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Pleasant Pellets,' cured me when doctors and other medicines failed. For fifteen years I suffered untold misery. I had given up all hope of ever getting well. I could not lie down to sleep, and everything I ate would almost cramp me to death. Was very nervous and could hardly walk across the room. I only weighed ninety pounds when I commenced talking these medicines six years ago; I now weigh one hundred and forty pounds and am having better health than ever before. After being sick so long I have changed to be robust and rosy cheeked. I have taken fifteen bottles each of 'Prescription,' 'Discovery' and 'Pellets.'"

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets act gently but effectively. Women value them.

MRS. CRONJE'S HEROISM.

The Story of Her Faithfulness During the Dark Days of Defeat.

BY CALLA ROBELY HAINES.

A rough exterior is often supposed to conceal a warm heart. This is not always true, but in the case of Mme. Cronje, the wife of the Boer commander, is an instance which proves that loyalty may be deepest where physical attractions are least.

British war correspondents have not hesitated to poke fun at the uncouth appearance of Mrs. Cronje and "the dirty black dress" that she wore when captured with the general at Paardeberg. They ignore the fact that she stood by her husband when he suffered for the republic, and her devotion to a brave man and a free flag seems not to have appealed to their gallantry.

Imagine, if you can, the condition under which Mme. Cronje existed during the ten days previous to the surrender. The Boers were obliged to burrow in the river bed like rabbits to protect themselves from the lyddite shells. It was only when Lord Roberts' farthermost force planted cannons on the kopje to the eastward of the Boer trenches and the guns so slaughtered Cronje's troops that he, with his remaining forces, had to surrender that the condition of the lager was disclosed.

Among the wreckage and confusion which it is impossible to describe, filth and stench from dead horses and oxen and fallen warriors buried only six inches beneath the soil did this brave woman live and at the peril of her life stand firmly at the side of her husband, cooking his meals, attending to his needs and ever urging him on in the desperate struggle. Hidden in a hole actually dug into the side of the river bank, she dared not venture out even to the wagons where the usual cooking utensils were kept. At the entrance to the smoke filled cave, over a small fire made from bits of wood which she herself had gathered in at arm's length from her shelter, she cooked the frugal meals, using a spade as a frying pan.

When danger seemed least, the brave little woman, together with the other women of the camp, made futile efforts to aid the dying and wounded who lay scattered about the field, only to be obliged to retire to the sheltering cave

MR. AND MRS. CRONJE.
[From a sketch made after the Boer surrender at Paardeberg.]

when the lyddite shells burst in the vicinity, splitting up rocks which shot in the air as though disturbed by some volcanic eruption, churning up the soil and flinging earth and Boers about like feathers in a gale.

Mme. Cronje suffered all the pangs of war, for in this very siege she lost her son. His life might have been saved had surgical treatment been at hand. Mme. Cronje did all that was possible for a mother to do in those last moments. With her own hands she marked the burial place of her boy that she might later perhaps return and find the spot.

The change from the comforts of home on a farm to life in camp has left marks on Mme. Cronje which will ever remind her of the hardships she has suffered. She is esentially a home woman, and she loved the homestead at Potchefstroom. The 12,000 acres that comprise the farm are for the most part unfenced and untilled, but the low one story stone building was all that could be desired for comfort. The inevitable stoop in front was the scene of many councils and happy hours of uninterrupted leisure. The six room house was unusually well furnished for a farmer of the Boschveldt.

There Mrs. Cronje lived with her husband very much in the patriarchal style, surrounded by their children, servants and dependents. Mrs. Cronje is about 60 years old. In private life she is very unassuming, and her manners, to many who have met her, possess a certain charm. Her face is pleasant and motherly to look upon with an expression of serious kindness.

She has a sharp wit and is, according to the Boer idea, a very hospitable hostess. Like Mrs. Kruger, she is said to have advised her husband in many of his military plans, and, like President Kruger, Cronje accepted her counsel, believing that two heads are better than one, especially in time of war. Though mild in manner, Mrs. Cronje joined her husband in the hatred he bears for the English, but she is nevertheless a strange mixture of simplicity and bravery.

Mme. Cronje is spoken of by the London Daily Review as a "weazened, miserable looking old woman who wipes her mouth with the back of her hand at the close of her meals." Her extra wardrobe, the chief article of which was a black silk dress commandeered from Lady Sarah Wilson, is described as having been contained in a pillowcase on her arrival at Modder river.

Such conditions as these are surely not elevating, but what are such trifles compared to the love which made it possible for Mme. Cronje to face the dangers of warfare and share the trials of camp life that she might be true to the vows made years before? She administered where and when it was possible to her husband's troops, as well as alleviated the miseries that are a part of a leader's life while in the field.

Before the war Mrs. Cronje was more like other Boer women — robust and stout—but camp life has done away with her physical attractions, and she now shows the ravages of the hardships experienced at the general's side.

After such faithfulness as she had shown, what wonder that, when her husband and Lord Roberts were conferring after the surrender, he should strenuously beg that he might not be separated from his wife!

FEMININE GOSSIP.

Notes About the Doings of Women All Over the Land.

The pro-Boer element in California has been idolizing Miss Sannie Kruger, the niece of Oom Paul's wife and of Oom Paul himself. She has been in San Francisco a year, and her people will not allow her to return to the Transvaal until the troubles are over either for good or for the worse. She would never have left home if she had had the slightest inkling of the coming conflict, for, as she says, the Boer women are excellent shots, and, if worse comes to worse, they, too, will go into the trenches and fight by the side of the men. Miss Kruger is herself a splendid shot. She is highly accomplished, speaking several languages.

One of the interesting features of the United States treasury department is the work of the blind typewriters. It is said that their work is equal to that of the best operators, and as much is expected of them in dictation and copying as from those that have their eyesight. The services of these blind clerks are so satisfactory that it is proposed to give opportunity to many more next year. There are only three or four now employed.

Miss Eliza Allen Starr, Chicago's famous writer on Christian art and kindred subjects, has been honored by Pope Leo. In recognition of her latest work, "The Three Archangels and Guardian Angels In Art," a beautiful medallion, with the papal benediction, has been forwarded to her. The honor is especially great inasmuch as women have rarely been the recipients of such highly valued tokens of appreciation.

At last the servant girl problem has been solved. At the Indian school near Riverdale, Cal., the Indian women who are too uncivilized to be "above" the kitchen are being trained for household service. They make admirable servants, and already the demand for this help is greater than the supply.

While Miss Phebe Palmer, a society girl of Philadelphia, was recently in Atlantic City she was fascinated by and soon made friends with an African lion cub, and every day until her departure for home she made him a social visit, holding him in her lap and stroking him without fear. Although such procedure is against the rules, the keeper at the zoological gardens permitted the fair lover of lions to take her favorite out into the open air and be photographed.

It is told of Mrs. McKinley that one never finds her without her crocheting. This gracious lady is always working for some charitable cause. Her favorite work is making slippers. Since she began making them she has completed 4,000 pairs, some of which have added as much as $50 to the funds at charitable fairs.

The eldest child of Queen Victoria, Empress Frederick of Germany, is said to have secretly married Count Sackedorf. She was the Princess Victoria Augusta.

The girls of a Chicago high school have organized a baseball team that will tour the state.

The youngest member of the Chicago Woman's club is Miss Priscilla Minerva Hannah Harriet Juliette Marie Bessie Georgiana Bianca Marguerita Daisy Phyllis Estelle Plummer of Chicago. She is the youngest descendant in the United States of John Alden and Priscilla Mullins and is less than a month old.

To Care for Tramp Children.

London, June 1.—The university settlements in London unite in advocating that the children of tramps be take away from them. During the summer the highways of England are infested by many people who have a fondness for a gypsy life. Among these are numerous ragged and neglected children. It is proposed that the guardians in the various districts take charge of their little folk and undertake their education.

Gloves for the Feet...

That is what you will say if you wear a Foster Shoe. They are the best made. We have talked with many ladies and find that no Shoe is as popular as a Foster. You once wear a pair and you never again will be satisfied to wear anything else. Like everything else that is the best it is the cheapest in the end. It will wear longer; it is always a perfect fit; it is a leader in style. We have just added to the line a new hand channel sole which is as flexible as a turn, and in weight, just between a welt and turn. It has the upper stock the same as in higher priced grades and made on the same lasts, but by this new process of hand channeling the sole, we buy it so that we can now sell it at . . .

$3.50.

Just think of a Foster Shoe at that price. All widths carried in stock. We have a swell line of new summer Oxfords.

The freest Shine stand in the city. All hours. SPENCER, THE NEWEST.

POINTER NO. 3.

Our $15, $18 and $20 Suits

READY TO PUT RIGHT ON

Should not be compared in any way with the so-called cheap merchant tailored suits that are made from samples and put up in the cheap tailor shops in the cities. Our suits at the above prices are as carefully tailored as suits the legitimate tailors put up at twice the price, all here, ready to try on. If any changes are necessary we have a first-class tailor to make them.

Don't go against the cheap Merchant Tailoring game. . . . .

You get only trash. You have no chance to try on, which every good tailor will tell you you must have to insure a fit. Give cheap tailoring a BLACK EYE. Either buy a first-class MADE-TO-ORDER suit or a first-class READY-TO-WEAR suit. We can furnish either.

We are particularly anxious to show you our Summer Outing Suits. These consist of pant and coat only, $8 00 to $12.00, made in mixed fabrics and striped flannels.

Leave your order with us for Fancy or White Shirts made to your order.
